

Jon and Sarah Pfeil

WHILE IN JAPAN,

JAPAN

6 / 10

- Olivia and Annabella attended rhythmic gymnastics classes and finished 1 1/2 grades of homeschooling.
- The Pfeils welcomed 47 different Japanese students into their home for CROSSWAY home parties.
- Sarah Pfeil started a Bible study with six local Japanese moms.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- For the many non-Christian students that the Pfeils are close to in Japan.
- For God to raise up many enthusiastic believers to support and pray for them.
- That the time while the Pfeils are on Home Ministry Assignment would be peaceful and productive.

The Pfeil family consists of Jon and Sarah Pfeil and their three children: Olivia, Annabella, and John Calvin. They are in Japan with Mission to the World (MTW), where they have been working for the past four years at the Oyumino Alive Church Plant and the CROSSWAY Student Outreach.

Oyumino Alive currently numbers about 60, and has rejoiced in six new adult baptisms over the past 4 years. 7 new babies have been baptized into the church in that same period, including John Calvin Pfeil.

Pfeil family photo

The Pfeils with Japanese students and other short-term missionaries

The Pfeil family with a Japanese student

The Pfeils are currently in America on Home Ministry Assignment and expect to stay here until January 2011. They are in the U.S. “to Report on what God is doing in Japan, to Recruit new short-term missionaries, and to Raise additional support for our next term.” They need a total of $2150 a month in pledges to return to Japan and so far have raised only $300 of that.