

SERVING IN ZAMBIA WITH MISSION TO THE WORLD

David and Terri Wegener

WHILE IN ZAMBIA,

ZAMBIA

6 / 10

- David Wegener got TCCA's website up and running. The web address is <http://www.tccafrica.org>
- Mary Wegener looked forward to her May graduation and applied for summer jobs.
- Lizzie Wegener decided to major in studio art and minor in history.
- John Wegener crossed the six foot barrier.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- For Mary, David and Terri Wegener as they decide where Mary should go after she finishes high school.
- For TCCA's national lecturers.
- For David and Terri's teaching to influence their students deeply and work wonders for the kingdom.

David and Terriane Wegener have been missionaries with MTW (Mission To the World) living in Ndola, Zambia since 2002. David works with the Theological College of Central Africa to "Train pastors and Christian leaders to reach Zambia and Africa for Christ." Terri works with the wives at TCCA. The Wegeners have four children. Lizzie is a Junior at Indiana University. Mary is finishing her last year of high school this year. John is in 10th grade at the Simba International School and Sarah is in 9th .

The Wegeners with fellow missionaries at the MTW retreat in South Africa

David Wegener teaching a course on the New Testament

Sarah Wegener, Age 14

David, Terri, Mary, John, and Sarah Wegener recently attended a missionaries retreat in Hermanus, a town about two hours east of Cape Town. They enjoyed the fellowship of other MTW missionaries, played soccer, rode horses and had a good time with friends in South Africa. Lizzie resides in Indiana for college, although she went to Nashville, Tennessee with a friend for spring break.